

Coasts and Seasides

Year 1

Key Questions

What counties make up the UK? What are the capital cities?

Where is the coastline?

What can we find at the coast?

What human and physical features can we find at the coast?

What animals would we find at the coast? What are their habitats like?

How is the coast different to Newcastle?

What attractions can we find at the coast?

Were there different attractions in the past?

How is a trip to the seaside the same and different compared to the past?

Is going to the seaside different in other countries?

Is the weather different in other countries?

The United Kingdom

The United Kingdom is made up of Northern Ireland, England, Scotland and Wales.

Key Vocabulary

Bay: body of water with some surrounded by land.

Beach: landform along the coast.

Cave: a space underground.

Cliffs: tall steep rocks with vertical faces.

Coast: where the sea meets the land.

Human Features: features built by humans.

Newcastle: a city on the River Tyne.

Past: gone by in time and no longer existing.

Physical Features: features made by nature.

Pier: raised walkway across water.

Present: existing or occurring now.

Rock Pools: pools filled by the sea.

--